

Foreside Funk

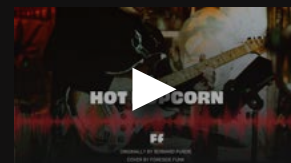

BIO

Foreside Funk is a dynamic and groove-driven musical ensemble that seamlessly blends classic funk, jazz, and fusion influences into a fresh and contemporary sound. Drawing inspiration from iconic artists like Maceo Parker, Herbie Hancock, Tower of Power, Average White Band, and the Godfather of Soul himself, James Brown, Foreside Funk is all about paying homage to the rich traditions of funk music. Their performances are characterized by irresistibly infectious rhythms, tight horn arrangements, and soulful vocals that transport audiences to the golden era of funk while infusing their music with a modern twist.

Members: Scott Abene (Guitar), James Welch (Drums), Matthew Lavigne (Bass, Vocals), Jennifer Thayer (Lead Vocals, Flute), Gary Lorusso (Trumpet), Justin Leach (Trombone), Richard Ploss (Saxophone), Michael Marrone (Trombone), Stefan Vittori (Saxophone), Dan Will (Keys, Vocals), and Tony Gallo (Percussion, Vocals).
